

Scrap-in-a-box

Collecting together materials for classroom projects can often prove difficult when working with tight budgets and having little time to shop around for a bargain.

We can help!

SAMS Online– the Scrap Art Material Store – can provide you with curriculum-based activity materials, within budget and at low cost.

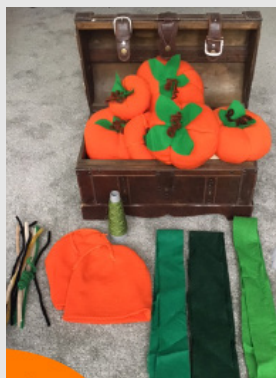

As a not-for-profit business, all of our products are donated to us by businesses, to be reused, recycled and upcycled instead of going to landfill.

All we look to do is cover our costs.

SCRAP-IN-A-BOX MONTHLY*
